E.--R.--Durka, (children)

Robert Behanan, it is thought died about 40 years ago, (1840) (?) His appearance was singular, being Tall, with high cheek bones, and wore his hair very long, Men now living remember him as attracting the attention of Boys, who when not restrained by proper influences, were in the habit of shouting "Polly Bob" as he passed them on the street, When he died, his hair being long, was tucked up and kept in place by a comb.
